Preschool Teacher Assistant

St Mary’s Preschool Philosophy
A child’s foundation at preschool age is utterly crucial for developing their senses. An extraordinary formula such as Montessori is set up for these children, while it’s up to the educators to keep it alive. This formula is unique and kept at a consistent rate of teaching the Montessori Method requires the instructors to study each child’s characteristics and create tools for them to advance onto the next level. The environment around the classroom will be planned with a designed curriculum and materials to prepare the child for the future
